

Peregrine FalconCam: From Egg to Flight Observation Guide

🐦 Falcon Nest

Where is the nesting box located? _____

Describe the nest _____

🐦 Falcon Parents

Do the Falcon parents have names?

Female Name _____

Male Name _____

🐦 Falcon Eggs

Egg-laying Dates

Record the egg-laying date. Describe the eggs, including color, shape, and size.

Egg 1 _____ Description _____

Egg 2 _____ Description _____

Egg 3 _____ Description _____

Egg 4 _____ Description _____

 Falcon Chicks

1. How long did it take for the eggs to hatch?
2. How did the chicks get out of their shell?

Hatching Dates

Write the date each egg hatched. Describe the chicks, including color, shape, size, whether or not they have feathers, and how they eat.

Egg 1 _____ Description _____

Egg 2 _____ Description _____

Egg 3 _____ Description _____

Egg 4 _____ Description _____

Banding Date _____

3. Why are the chicks banded?
4. What information is included on the band?
5. Where is the band placed?

Write the name of each chick and their color band number.

Chick 1 _____ Color Band Number _____

Chick 2 _____ Color Band Number _____

Chick 3 _____ Color Band Number _____

Chick 4 _____ Color Band Number _____

Flight Dates

- 6. How old are the chicks when they first attempt to fly?
- 7. Are the chicks successful in their first attempt?
- 8. How do the parents assist their chicks in their flying attempt?

Write the date when the chicks try to fly.

Chick 1 _____

Chick 2 _____

Chick 3 _____

Chick 4 _____

Peregrine Falcon Eggs

Peregrine Falcon Chicks, Female
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Peregrine Falcon Adult
Morro Bay, CA 27 May 2008
Michael "Mike" L. Baird,
flickr.bairdphotos.com